SUPPORT SERVICES RESOURCE GUIDE

The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) requires that campuses have information readily available to assure an understanding of campus policies, procedures and victim services. In addition to this brochure, please visit: <http://ou.monmouthcollege.edu/life/residence-life/scots-guide/harassment.aspx> to review our policies and procedures. Students and employees who are victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, may request assistance or remediation from the College for academic situations (such as changes in course schedules, assignments or tests), living situations (such as changes in a housing assignment), transportation (such as requesting to be transported from one work site to another in a separate vehicle), working situations (requesting assignments to different work locations), protective measures (requesting additional security at locations or activities where misconduct occurred.)
